“ Aunt Sarah was my grandfather's sister. My Grandfather was Edgar Mike Dailey. My memories were having family reunions when I was a child & the last time I saw Aunt Sarah was at Uncle Thomas (Rev. T.K. Dailey) funeral. There were 9 siblings of the Dailey family & I am proud to have known her. I know she has reunited with all of those that went before her & how the Dailey's are all together once again praising our Lord. What a reunion she is having.

“ I absolutely loved Mrs. Medders. She was such a joy and blessing to me. I would run into her at different places and we would always stop and talk. She would always ask about my mother-in-law who went to church with her for awhile. So very thoughtful! I know she is walking on streets of gold today, because of her faith in Jesus. I rejoice in knowing she is forever healed.
