“ I am at a loss for words. As Steven and I prepare your boys Christmas dinner, I keep wanting to hear your laugh or the mushy way you talked to my brother. The love the two of you had for each other was evident every minute, every hour, everyday. I love you so much and will miss you. Heaven has gained a very special angel.

“ My dear Aunt Shellie. Just her name brings a smile to my face. What a beautiful, funny woman that blessed us in so many ways throughout her life. Thank you Aunt Shellie for your laughter, unending strength, and the love you had for my Uncle. I love you so much, and will forever miss you deeply. Uncle Steven and her boys, I am praying for you all always. May her strength carry on through you all in the days to come. May it help you all find some sort of peace and healing.
