

SHIRLEY ANTHONY CUMMINGS

January 1, 1936 - January 1, 2013

CUMMINGS, SHIRLEY ANTHONY Passed away on January 1, 2013 at age 77. Her Christian faith was the foundation of her lifelong service to others. An accomplished quilter, crafter, and needle worker, Mrs. Cummings was known for her lively sense of humor, curiosity about the world, and a pragmatic approach to problem solving that enabled her to move her family around the United States and Europe. She was a dedicated public servant who helped others receive retirement and disability claims to care for their own families during her long career with the Social Security Administration. She was beloved by her extended family and her friends who are unable to repay the time and love she gave so freely. Mrs. Cummings is survived by her mother, Mary Frances Gilliam; her children, Anne Cummings and Jim Cummings (Amy); grandchildren Blake Cummings (Jenny), Rachel Cummings, and Jordan Cummings; her niece Jennifer Finch; and a great grandson, Henry Archer Cummings. Her family will receive visitors on Friday, January 4 from 5 until 7 PM at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home, 195 Brooklane Drive, Hueytown, Alabama. Funeral services will take place on Saturday, January 5 at 1 PM at Peoples Chapel. First Baptist Church of Pleasant Grove Pastoral Minister Harold Newberry will officiate. Flowers are welcomed, but a donation in her name to a charity supporting research and treatment of lung disease is appreciated.
