“ Susan Howard was a precious person, outstanding educator, and true friend. Vivid images remain in our hearts of a lovely young girl singing in the choir at PRBC, of a beautiful young woman as a college student, and as a young adult as she began a very successful career as an educator. She was an award winning teacher during her tenure at North Highland Elementary. She was an extremely dedicated educator and was always willing to help her colleagues or anyone requesting her assistance. Her dedication to her students was a personification of what kind of a professional she was. Every lesson she planned and implemented was completed with great care. We know, because our sons, Jeffrey Simpson, Bryan and Brandon Conwill were blessed to have the finest educator we have ever known as their fifth grade teacher. Our sons and every child she touched are better people because she influenced their lives. We will miss our friend. God bless all of you!
