“ I am just finding out the passing is this wonderful lady. She was in every sense my God mother. She knew me from a baby and gave me my first dog. We had so many memories of Ray, Sylvia, my mother and dad. I loved her so much. I am so sorry Ray. Love you too!

“ I have fond memories of Sylvia from our days together at Iron & Steel Workers CU, now AFFCU. She could laugh like no one else and in turn, make everyone else chuckle! Sylvia was so faithful to the credit union movement, helpful to its members, and, of course, her beloved boss, "JR."

I pray that the family's faith, family and friends will bring peace of mind and heart over the loss of Sylvia in the days ahead.
