“ I'm so sorry we weren't able to attend Grey Jr.'s service. I have many fond memories of him growing up in Sweet Water. As cousins, we visited his family many times through the years. I'm so glad we were able to go to school together and share the memories of being in the same graduating class. He was such a great guy and will truly be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Bonnie, and with all the family.

ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Etheredge family with these comforting words: "Then Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the tomb... Jesus said: "Take the stone away." When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Lazarus, come out!" The man who had been dead came out... Jesus said to them: "Free him and let him go." (John 11:38-44) The resurrections performed by Jesus offered clear proof that God gave Jesus power over death. In fact, the Bible says that Jesus now possesses "the keys of death." (Revelation 1:18) So Jesus will unlock the gates of the grave, just as he ordered that the stone of Lazarus' tomb be rolled away. Your loved one will live again (Isaiah 26:19). I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. “ Please except this expression of warm sympathy regarding the death of your loved one. The bible makes this promise: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither outcry nor pain, the former things have passed away" May the family be comforted by this promise, and may your warm memories of .Thomas sustain you through the tough times to come..
