“ I was very shocked when I heard about Vicki, and so saddened by this news. I had no idea she was sick. I knew her from Long Lewis. She was an absolute beautiful girl, and was always very nice to me. I pray for her family now, who must find a new normal, without her. I know this heartache and what lies ahead for all who loved her. My heart reaches out to all of her family. Prayers now for each need of each one of you. No words can make this any easier. Time will not take the hurt away. Time will help to "handle" it differently, but the pain of loss never leaves you. One day at a time....and God's arms holding you up. I am soo truly sorry...
