“ I knew Walter since we were both children. He was 11 or 12 when we first met. For a while he was my best friend. It was before I started elementary school and we used to play "cars" together. We would play in the dirt with rocks, sticks, or anything we could find to make cars and people. Lines in the dust were our "roads."

Walter was one of the kindest, gentlest people I've ever met. He always had a smile for me whenever I visited and was always soft spoken. The miracle is that people like Walter are born with a gift of being guaranteed a place in heaven no matter what. It has always been the job of the rest of us to strive to be like him and those like him. Jesus said, "... for of such is the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 19;14). If I make it to heaven I hope to see his smile once more.
