“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share an encouraging thought from the Bible. You have my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God will soon remove all sickness and death. (Isaiah 33:24 and Isaiah 25:8) Jehovah hates death; he views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again. (Job 14:14,15). “granny we're going to miss you so so much but you will be forever in our hearts and we will see you again Soon...and I'm sure when I do see you again the first thing I will see is that big ol' grin on your face that was always there followed by that infectious laugh you had and then I'll have the biggest grin on my face because you never failed to put one on mine. You were so good to everyone and you were so wonderful to my girls and I hope you knew just how much they adored you. we were blessed to have you in a lives and our hearts will surely be missing a piece now that your gone. Those that knew you were surely graced just by your presence. I love you granny and even though we will all miss you being in our lives we are so grateful that you are no longer in pain. Love always, Amanda
