“ I remember stopping at a small grocery store in 5 points West and saw Dee working there. We chatted a few minutes and it began a life long friendship. He was probably still in high school and may have been dating Gloria then. I enjoyed the many years he was in my Sunday school class at Valley Creek church. He added to some interesting discussions due to his Catholic background. I'm so glad I got to know Dee as a good friend and Christian brother. It saddens my heart to say goodbye...See you Heaven, Dee.
