

WILFORD WILSON HARRIS

January 12, 2025

Harris, Wilford Wilson, age 94, of Dolomite departed this earthly life on January 12, 2025, surrounded by his family. Mr. Harris was a longtime member of Dolomite Baptist Church and came to know the Lord in his 60s. He could be found every Sunday sitting in his regular spot at church. He retired from Crestline Texaco after more than 40 years as a mechanic, in the Crestline/Mountain Brook area. Even after retirement you could still find him under the hood of a car on any given day. He rarely missed a day of work and he instilled his sense of hard work in both of his sons and grandchildren. In his spare time, he enjoyed sports of all kinds. He was in church bowling leagues, enjoyed watching wrestling, going to the races and even played softball into his 70s. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend to many. He is survived by his wife of 71 years, Carolyn Fay Harris; two sons, Billy (Sandy) Harris of Concord and Charles Harris of Montevallo; four grandchildren, Cindy (Scott) McClellan, Billy (BJ) (Lori) Harris, Erica (Anthony) Freeland, Roman (Ellan) Harris; one honorary granddaughter, Jackie Hollis; seven great-grandchildren, Ella Harris, Alina Freeland, Bailey McClellan, Cydney Harris, Madison Harris, Adalyne Freeland and Riley Harris; five honorary great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, Monroe and Ethel Harris; two brothers Paul Harris and Thomas Harris and a daughter-in-law, Stacie Harris.

The family would like to express their heartfelt appreciation to everyone at

“ I am sorry about the passing of Wilford. I haven't seen your dad or mom in a long time. Many times your dad and my husband, Bill Brown , deceased, played ball at the old Dolomite ball park. Lots of dirt dust back then. I'm praying for Faye and you sons and all the families. May God bless each of you. Love. Dorothy
