“ My sweet Daddy departed this earth 3 years to the day that his bride had passed away. He was the sweetest and kindest person in the whole world in my eyes. He and I shared a mutual love of Alabama football, and would talk about the games each week. Whenever I called or spoke to him, I would always ask "How are you my Sweet Daddy?" - and he would always giggle and reply with "Hello Baby".

He loved all of his children, his grandchildren, and great granddaughter. He was a Godly man who loved Jesus. I know God has called him home to be another Angel - rejoining our Mother in the Kingdom.

I will miss him dearly, but have beautiful memories of times and experiences shared throughout my life. My Sweet Daddy - I will miss you, and will one day see you again. Your loving daughter - Sharon

“ At the Gossett’s home for years we had a group called “Lion Chasers”. When Henry moved in with them 3 years ago, every Wednesday night he was such a gentleman to all us older ladies! Sometimes he would help ladies who were walking to the door and Hebert was in worse shape than them, but he helped them any! He liked to talk most about how much he missed his “Sweetheart” Gloria!
