“ One of our must favorite memories of Bill was in New Orleans. It was Bill's birthday and we were at Cafe du monde. We asked the waiter would he sing Happy Birthday. His eyes got big as saucers and he said you want me to sing? It was so funny. We laughed the rest of the time we were there. 😂😂

“ I have too many memories to share. Me and mary jo use to go on dates with Sarah and bill before they were married. We would go to their house and spend the night after they married. They took us to movies ...the Vulcan and who knows where else. Those are good memories. I remember the day they were married. I remember the day of each of their children's birth. This family is my second family. I love them and will cherish my memories with bill and sara.

“ I cherish the memories of Bill and his family at Concord Highlands Baptist Church. Bill and his wife Sarah Nell were always loving to our family. Bill had a special name for me: Bertha. Any time I hear that name I am always reminded of Bill and our days at CHBC. My prayers are with the Varnon family at this time.
