“ God has taken my dad home. Willie "Slim" Stipelcovich was about the most caring and heart filled person you ever want to meet. He loved outdoors and gardening. At 85 years old loved to get on the laptop I provided for him so he could write his memoirs. If he wasn't doing that, he was playing solitaire. He would call me up out of the blue on the Friday Night and say "I've been playing solitaire for 3 days and finally beat it." The funny part is he would do this about every two weeks. he was so proud to be able to get on the computer and be the big shot. He has had one wild life and I have all that he has recorded. plans are to share that in the future. God bless you Daddy and Rest In Peace.
