“ Please know how much Larrie meant to me, as well as my family. He will truly be missed & always lovingly remembered by us, he was always a true friend, & there are so many wonderful memories I have to keep in my heart! I want to Thank His parents CarolSue & Woody, as well as Scotty for sharing him with us & also for your friendship over these many years since high school! The love I have for your family simply cannot be measured! I pray our Lord will always hold you all close & create comfort for you that only he can give! May you find peace in knowing that some amazing day, we will be reunited with Larrie in a beautiful paradise, never to be apart again! Until that day, may you be blessed, with all our love always,
